THE NATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY FUND ACT.

Statutory Instrument 222—3.

The National Social Security Fund (Contributions) Regulations.¹ (Under sections 13 and 52 of the Act.)

1. Citation.

These Regulations may be cited as the National Social Security Fund (Contributions) Regulations.

2. Payments into the fund.

Every payment of contributions and every amount authorised or required under the Act to be paid or transferred into the National Social Security Fund or any account of that fund may be paid in cash, by cheque, by money order, by postal order or by such other document of payment as the managing director may decide.

3. Place of payments.

Subject to regulation 4 of these Regulations, any such payment shall be made at the head office of the fund or at such other office as the managing director may decide.

4. Payment not by cash.

(1) Where an employer or other person making the payment as aforesaid chooses to make the payment otherwise than by cash, he or she may do so by posting the cheque, money order, postal order or such other document of payment authorised by the managing director to the head office of the fund.

¹These Regulations were made under the Social Security Act, Act 21/1967. That Act was repealed by the National Social Security Fund Act, Act 8/1985. These Regulations are saved by operation of the Interpretation Act, Cap. 3, section 12.

(2) Where payment is made by post, the date of payment for the purposes of the Act shall be the date of the receipt of the document effecting the payment at the head office.

History: S.I. 45/1968.
